Submitted to Secretary.

Nothing is known in the General Branch as to who supplies the articles required for taking finger prints or as to its cost.

The ~~it~~ articles consist of a pad (a tin plate ~~screened/on~~ screwed on to a small wooden board), a roller and a small tin or bottle of printing ink. Although the Supdt of Stationery has not now got these articles in stock, he may be asked to get 200 sets of them prepared or obtained as soon as possible for supply to Distt and Taluk Treasuries.

Meanwhile, the Deputy Commissioner of Kolar may be told that, pending the supply of the articles by the Stationery Depot, the procedure followed in the Bangalore District Treasury referred to in the last para of Pro.No.6667-706/ R.F.18-99 dated 21st March 1900, viz, using a piece of thick glass and printer's ink and kerosene oil, may be adopted at once in all the Treasuries in his District, purchasing the requisite articles locally.
